Superior Court Civil Rule 45, Parts C, D & E*

(c) Protection of Persons subject to Subpoenas

(1) A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take reasonable steps to avoid imposing under burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoena. The Court shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney in breach of this duty an appropriate sanction, which may include, but is not limited to, lost earnings and a reasonable attorney's fee.

(2)(A) A person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated books, papers, documents or tangible things or inspection of premises need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless commanded to appear for deposition, hearing or trial.

(B) Subject to paragraph (d)(2) of this rule a person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying may, within 14 days after service of the subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than 14 days after service, serve upon the party or attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to inspection or copying of any or all of the designated materials or of the premises. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect and copy the materials or inspect the premises except pursuant to an order of the Court. If objection has been made, the party serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, move at any time for an order to compel the production. Such an order to compel production shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of a party from significant expense resulting from the inspection and copying commanded.

(3)(A) On timely motion, the Court shall quash or modify the subpoena if it

- (i) fails to allow reasonable time for compliance,
- (ii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies, or
- (iii) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) If a subpoena

- (i) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information, or
- (ii) requires disclosure of an unretained expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party, the Court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena or, if the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the Court may order appearance or production only upon specified conditions.

(d) Duties in Responding to Subpoena.

(1) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.

(2) When information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.

(e) Contempt.

Failure by any person without adequate excuse to obey a subpoena served upon that person may be deemed contempt of court.

DEFINITIONS

As used in Exhibit A and B, the terms listed below are defined as follows:

1. Whenever the terms “DSUPD,” “you” and “your” are used, they shall refer to the Delaware State University Office of Public Safety and/or the Delaware State University Police Department, or any employee, agent, attorney or representative of the Delaware State University Office of Public Safety and/or the Delaware State University Police Department.
2. “Foundation” shall refer to Delaware State University Student Housing Foundation, Inc. or any subsidiary, parent, affiliate, predecessor, employee, agent, attorney, or representative of Delaware State University Student Housing Foundation.
3. “DSU” shall refer to Delaware State University or any subsidiary, parent, affiliate, predecessor, employee, agent, attorney, or representative of Delaware State University.
4. “DSU Properties” shall refer collectively to any student housing property on the campus of Delaware State University, including the University Courtyard Apartments and the University Village.
5. “AMC” shall refer to Ambling Management Company or any subsidiary, parent, affiliate, predecessor, employee, agent, attorney, or representative of Ambling Management Company.
6. “Person” shall mean and include natural persons, corporations, partnerships, associations, joint ventures, proprietorships, entities, associations and all other forms of organizations.
7. “Document,” as used herein, is defined in the broadest sense permitted by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and means the embodiment, in any form, of any attempt, by any means, to utilize, memorialize or communicate thoughts or information. As used herein, the term “document” shall mean every writing or record of every type or description that is, or has been, in the possession, custody or control of DSUPD, or of which DSUPD has knowledge, including, without limitation, the original and all copies (regardless of origin or location) of any writings, notes, correspondence, communications of any nature, electronic mail, facsimiles, telegrams, memoranda, summaries or records of personal conversations, diaries, reports, calendars, drawings, photographs, sketches, minutes or records of minutes, agreements, summaries of negotiations, brochures, pamphlets, advertisements, circulars, press releases, newspaper articles, tapes or recordings of any form, drafts of any documents, revisions of any drafts of documents, and printed matter of every kind of description, including all information in computers, in computer readable form or on microfilm or microfiche.

The within document requests are specifically intended to include electronic data files, documents, records, etc. Thus the word "document" used herein is to be construed broadly enough to encompass computer files, for example, a letter or memorandum that is prepared using Microsoft Word software and resides in electronic form as a "*.doc" file in addition to whatever version it may also take in paper form.

8. "Communication" means any written or oral transmission of fact, information or opinion, including but not limited to any utterance, notation, statement of any nature whatsoever, or document as defined above. "Communication" is to be construed broadly enough to encompass written communications on paper, such as letters and memos, as well as electronic communications such as faxes, e-mails, and recorded voicemails.

9. Unless the individually enumerated requests below specifically provide for a different time scope for responsive documents, the requests should be construed as being limited in scope to documents that are generated, created, or modified on or after January 1, 2005.

10. As used herein, "any" shall mean any and all, "all" shall likewise mean any and all, and "or" shall mean "and" as well as "or."

EXHIBIT A

DOCUMENTS

1. Copies of any and all police reports, activity reports or incident reports regarding any vandalism, foul play, unlawful activity, suspicious activity, breach of University policies, rules or regulations, and/or allegations thereof occurring at, or involving students living at, the DSU Properties (University Courtyard and University Village) from September 2005 through the present.
2. Copies of any and all police reports, activity reports or incident reports regarding any vandalism, foul play, unlawful activity, suspicious activity, breach of University policies, rules or regulations, and/or allegations thereof occurring at, or involving students living at, the traditional student housing dormitories located on the campus of DSU from September 2005 through the present.
3. Copies of any and all Overtime Activity Reports for the DSU Properties from September 2005 through the present.
4. Copies of any and all communications between DSUPD and (a) DSU or (b) the Foundation regarding any of the DSU Properties from September 2005 through the present.
5. Copies of any and all communications between DSUPD and AMC regarding any of the DSU Properties from September 2005 through the present..
6. Produce any and all documents, communications, notes, pictures, or any other documents related to, referring to, or referencing all contracts, invoices, and/or payments made by AMC relating to services provided by DSUPD to AMC, the Foundation, or DSU regarding the DSU properties.
